NOTICE: Whittier Tech will not be responsible for injuries to students that occur during the clinic. Cheerleading can be a hazardous sport. While all reasonable steps will be taken and this activity will be taught and supervised by trained coaches, no guarantee is made that injuries will not occur during the course of the clinic. It is therefore understood between the coaches, students and their parents the awareness of the risks involved at the outset of the clinic and that the coaches are not liable for any injuries that occur during the teaching of skills at the Whittier Tech cheerleading clinic. Enrollment of the child in this clinic constitutes full acceptance by the child's parent.

I have read the above and accept the terms set forth.
